Jack Williams

Friday, June 3rd, 7:30 - 9:30 p.m.

Peter Yarrow (of Peter, Paul and Mary) called Jack
"...the best guitar player I've ever heard..."

"Jack and his music are an American treasure."

~ Mickey Newbury

The music of Jack Williams, rooted in his native South Carolina, has been shaped by a 54-year career of playing folk, rock, jazz, R&B, classical and the popular music of the 30s, 40s and 50s. He is counted among the most dynamic performers on today's 'folk' circuit. "... one of the most enlightened and entertaining performers I've ever encountered," said Dave Humphreys of Two-Way Street Coffeehouse in Downer's Grove, IL. Jack is considered a musician's musician, an uncommonly unique guitarist, a writer of vivid songs with a strong sense of place, and a storyteller in the old Southern tradition who further illustrates each tale with his guitar.

Jack has nine CDs of original music on the Wind River (Folk Era) label, the newest being "Four Good Days", plus his DVD "High Cotton", a video collection of on-stage performances. An additional CD, "Don't Let Go", is a collection of cover songs reflecting major influences on his musical development. Jack has produced all of his own recordings plus CDs by Mickey Newbury, Ronny Cox, Eric Schwartz, and others.

This show will especially meaningful to us, because Jack is dedicating the show to the memory of Scott's father, Gordon Lipsett, who loved Jack's music. Family members will be attending, so they can join in this celebratory remembrance of Gordon's long life.
